Link to NRHP nomination for the Courthouse District: https://www.dhr.virginia.gov/historic-registers/032-0040/	"Fluvanna County's historic courthouse is in need of a big makeover, one that is going to cost more than $1 million. The courthouse dates back to 1830 and many say they see it as a landmark in Fluvanna, Virginia, and the United States. 'It's almost a symbol of the county,' Fluvanna Historical Society President Marvin Moss said. "It is one of the most perfectly preserved both on the outside and the inside of all of the courthouses of this era, and that's a tribute to the care that the people in Fluvanna County have had for this building over more than almost two centuries.' Moss says the courthouse last underwent restoration in the 1980's, and it's time for updated fixing, given new technology that can do more for the building. He says the roof is one thing that needs repairs." (https://www.nbc29.com/2022/12/08/historic-courthouse-fluvanna-county-needs-more-than-1-million-funding-restoration-project/)
